DECISION TO SEND WARSHIP TO MEXICO ATTRACTS WIDE ATTENTION

GERMANY'S DECISION IS IN LINE WITH POLICY OF OTHER EUROPEAN GOVERNMENTS

Action May Prevent Huerta from Going to Further Extremes---Provisional President Assures American Charge O'Shaughnessy That No Violence Will Be Done the Imprisoned Deputies, But That They Must Stand Trial.

No intimation had been rement or recess of congress until the and President Wilson was intermed only by press despatches of the action. No formal comment was made on the incident, but it was apparent that the Washington government was not displeased. The sending of a German warship is in line with the policy of other European governments which have had vessels cruising off the Mexican coasts from time to time during critical moments of Mexico's internal strife.

Significance was attached to the announcement by official Washington, however, because it was accepted as indicating that European powers who had previously recognized Huerta government-among which were Germany and Great Britain, now saw evidences of Huerta's inability to compose the situation. Latest advices to Washington are to the effect that the British government is deeply concerned over its recognition of Huerta and it is even ation in Mexico is such as to necessideclared reliably that King George and Queen Mary have taken a personal interest in the situation with view to measure that would support the policy of the United States. No change in the attitude of this county was announced today, but President Wilson and his advisers are debating what the next step should be and tomorrow's cabinet meeting may bring forth a decision on the subject.

Another development that is occupying the attention of department officials is the yellow fever epidemic in Carmen and Campeche.

American warships usually lie a few miles off the coast and are not in danger, but refugees who are being constantly picked up will be carefully examined. More care will be taken by the navy doctors in granting shore leave to American sailors.

Surgeon General Blue of the publie health and marine hospital service is in close touch with the sitution and is advising that all precautions be taken.

C. R Knollenberg introduced a motion to the effect that the Chamber of Commerce go on record as favoring the issuance of $50,000 for the re-building of the municipal light plant. This motion was not discussed and as a substitute Dr. Bowe for the public affairs committee introduc ed the following report and resoluthe following suggestion in the matter of the proposed bond issue for the reconstruction of the municipal light plant. When this question was last submitted to the voters the following questions arose:

Questions Are Asked.
"First, the advisability of constructing a municipal plant or the securing of current from some private corporation.

"Second, as to the location of the power plant.

"Third, as to the capacity and type of plant and lights and the distribuion of lights. "Fourth, as to the value of the

APPEALS TO SUPREME COURT. Washington, Oct. Price of Minneapolis, Minn., today filed an appeal with the supreme court, calling in question the right of state of Illinois to fine him under the Illinois statute classifying boric acid as unwholesome and prohibiting its sale as a food preservative. The supreme court of Illinois held that there was enough doubt among scientists as to the wholesomeness of boric acid in foods to justify the law. Reports by Dr. Wiley as to the harmful effects of the acid upon the harmful effects of the acid upon his famous "poison squad" were used Admission in the prosecution of the case.

COMMERCIAL CLUB FILES AN INTERVENING PETITION

Claims Bridge Toll Preserves Natural Advantage of East St. Louis Over Large City in Missouri.

St. Louis, Oct. 13 .- The East St Louis, Ill., Commercial club today fil ed an intervening petition with the interstate commerce commission in the suit brought by a St. Louis newspaper for the abolition of the bridge toll of twenty cents per ton on coal shipped into St. Louis from Illinois. The St. Louis Commercial club filed its petition as a co-defendant with the terminal railroad association, claiming that the bridge toll pre serves the chief natural advantage of East St. Louis over the larger city on the Missouri side of the river.

The petition says that since the development of the coal industry in neighboring counties, East St. Louis had enjoyed continual prosperity on account of the advantages it enjoyed through its location on the east side of the Mississippi.

A Jacksonville man who is of for liquor lurking somewhere within said recently, "Certainly I will vote against the return of saloons to "Soon after mid-night the Grosser Kurfuerst succeeded in lowering a away from the smell of whiskey I boat which had almost as painful exagainst the return of saloons to am all right, but you know what happens when I get a whiff of it in my nostrils. I have made money and had money, but whiskey got it and came near getting me.

Vital statistics show that last year there were 66,000 deaths directly due to the liquor traffic. The saloon is an adjunct of the liquor business. It is the training school where the young learn to drink. It provides a great percentage of those who yearly are sacrificed to liquor. If it could be proven that business conditions would be improved by the return of saloons to Jacksonville, that fact would not constitute a good reason for voting them back. When you talk about saloons and whiskey; you are discussing a moral question.

The situation seems to grow constntiy more tense in Mexico and the eves of the world are upon that orely troubled and torn republic. Meanwhile the people of the United States at large approve the attitude of the administration in endeavoring to protect American lives, to meet all just obligations as a world power and yet to keep out of real participation in the struggle. It would be very easy for this nation to get into hat war and take years to get out.

The man who wants the widepen saloon always argues something "No-license laws are a failure. Vote out the saloon and vote in the blind pig. Folks will sell liquor anyway. Regulate the saloon and there will be no blind pigs, and the well-regulated saloon is infinitely better than the dives and joints which sell liquor illegally.'

If there be any merit in this kind of reasoning, surely Chicago ought to prove it with its 7,000 and more regulated saloons-regulated to the tune of $1,000 annual license fee. But Chicago fails utterly to support any such contention. Chicago is literally overrun with blind pigs, and they are proving a continual source of annoyance to the police. The lowing news item appeared cently in the Chicago Examiner:

'At a meeting of the Business Men's Morals committee held at 200 East Fifty-first street last night William M. Blake was appointed special investigator to get evidence against the many so-called "flats" that flourish in residence districts. The committee was organized four months ago by South Side business men. Blake, who is a vice investigator, will begin work immediately and already claims to have a good bit of evidence.

"On the South Side from Thirtyfirst street to Fifty-first street, from Indiana avenue east to the lake there are 1,200 of these so-called 'flats' in operation," said Mr. Blake at the

Dr. Rees' sermons have been directed to those within the churches as well as those without. Five churches shared in the responsibility for the revival and the very fact that the members of these separate bodies have worked in unison and to one common end has meant much. Dr. Rees is an earnest, sincere, eloquent minister of the gospel and there is that about him which makes one feel that his daily life and thought fully measure up with that high standard which he so zealously and convincingly holds up for others.

perience as the Carmania. After getting within speaking distance of the Volturno the officer in charge of the boat shouted to the passengers to jump. But either they did not hear or were afraid to respond. The people aboard the fire ship were in a state of semi-collapse; they were overcome by the sight of the destruction of many of their fellows in the morning. They knew that the fire was creeping on them inch by inch When the detonators and rocket stored in the chart room exploded they thought the end had come. Ter ror drove them almost mad.

"It was hell," Trintepohl said. "Meanwhile disaster threatened boat crew from the Minneapolis, be cause of a broken rudder. The searchlight of the Carmania revealed their plight and a boat was sent to their rescue. When brought along side the Cunarder, their beat wa smashed against the side but the of ficer and crew were saved. They had een out for five hours.

"We will be there with the mill -the sea name for oil.' On the arrival of the tank huge quantities were pumped around the Volturno, making it safe for the life boats to approach. It was a stirring spectacle when the greater liners put out their boats which danced over the shimmering, oil-filmed waters, to the work of rescue. And soon the Vol-turno was left a derelict."

Kronland Carries 74. New York, Oct. 13 .- Carrying 7 of the passengers and fourteen of the crew of the ill-starred Volturno, the steamship Kroonland of the Red Star line is battling her way toward this port against northwesterly gales and heavy seas some 800 miles east of Sandy Hook.

The ship is expected to arrive Wednesday or Thursday mor wireless message from the Kroonland tells of the rescue of the Volturno's passengers, the captain, F. Inch, and several other officers. Among persons who made inquiries at the offices of the Uranium line here today concerning the fate of the Volturno's passengers was Philip Ep pel of Philadelphia. Eppel said his wife Rachel and sons Frouin and Abraham had been on the Volturno. He became hysterical when informed that they were safe.

Afte a careful investigation of the effect of no license for six years in this city, resulting not only in the loss of hundreds of thousands of dollars, in population and in school enrollment, but also in a condition far worse for the boys and girls and all of the people of the city; the Business Men's Protective Association, realizing the financial and moral condition of the city, has planned a program for the improvement of streets, lights, etc., and at its regular meeting adopted the following ordinance, which they will ask the city council to adopt:

AN ORDINANCE TO REGULATE AND RESTRICT THE OPERATION OF SALOONS IN THE CITY OF JACKSONVILLE, ILLINOIS.

Be it Ordained by the City of Jacksonville, Illinois.

Section 1. Any person who shall sell any intoxicanting liquors in any quantity in any room, building, yard, premises or place of public resort within the corporate limits of the City of Jacksonville, Illinois, without first having obtained a license as hereinafter provided, shall upon conviction, forfeit such goods as may be found in their possession and fined not less than $100; or imprisoned in the county jail not less than 30 days nor more than 90 days for each offense. Section 2. Before said license shall be issued to any firm, the same shall make application therefor to the City Council in writing, describing the place or premises where said business is to be Section 3. No license granted under the provisions of this ordinance shall give the person or firm to whom such license is issued the privilege of doing business in any other place than the one described in Section 4. All saloons licensed under this ordinance shall be situated on the street floor and no screens or any other device shall be used to prevent a plain view of the premises from the street at all times, day and Section 5. No wine rooms shall be licensed under this ordinance or permitted in connection with saloons Section .6 No person or firm licensed under this ordinance shall sell or give away or allow to be sold or given by his knowledge or consent any intoxicating liquor or other beverage to any minor. Neither shall the person licensed employ any minor as a servant or clerk in any capacity in his place of business.

Section 7. No proprietor or employee of a saloon, shall sell or give away or allow to be sold or given away on his premises any intoxicating drink to any person evidently under the influence of liquor. Section 8. The license fee shall be $1,000, payable annually in ad-

Section 9. All saloons shall be operated under the following hours:

Opening at 5 a. m. and closing at 11 p. m. Remaining closed from 11 p. m. Saturday until 3 a. m. the following Monday. Section 10. No proprietor or employee shall be allowed in their respective places of business during the time they are closed, except in case of fire or destruction by the elements necessary care of property; or by the written consent of the Mayor or in his absence the Chief of police, and said written consent shall specify the time granted said proprietor or his employee and purpose of same. Section 11. For the violation of any of the sections of this ordinance relative to the operations of saloons upon conviction therefor, said person or firm licensed hereunder shall pay for the first conviction $100. For the second conviction they shall forfeit their license to the city together with the amount of license paid and the said license shall not be transferrable. And the city council sitting as a License Board shall have the power to revoke any license issued by them, for the violation of the conditions under which said license was issued.

Section 12. A copy of this ordinance shall be printed in readable type and hung in a conspicuous place in the room licensed; and a copy of the ordinance shall be printed on the back of each license issued and made a part of the contract between the city and the licensee.

Section 13. Any minor who misrepresents his age to secure intoxicating liquor shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction for same shall be fined for the first conviction $100; for the second conviction $100 and be imprisoned in the city jail not less than 30 and not more than 90 days for each offense. Section 14. License granted under this ordinance may be transfer-

The death angel has again visited our Corps and taken from us one of our oldest and tduest members, oldest in years as well as membership, Mrs. Julia Gibbons, a noble Christian woman and an earnest worker. The holder of a valid second grade county certificate may exchange the same for a new second grade elementary certificate valid for teaching in the first eight grades in the county of issue and in the ninth and tenth grades when endorsed by the county superintendent. This certificate can be renewed only twice. It is nothing short of a professional disgrace that practically nine-tenths of our teaching force today are teaching upon a second grade certificate, the lowest form of a credential under when they can draw the public funds. The blame for such condition does not rest wholly upon the teachers or school officers. It is the fault of the present archaic and inadequate law which offers no incentive to go from the lower to a higher certificate.

Fournier followed Collins with a timely double into the overflow crowd and Bodie and Collins scored. A pinch hitter batted for Humphries in the next inning and Jimmy Lavender, who went to the mound for the Cubs, was greeted with a fusilade of hits, which included doubles by Lord and Bodie and a single by Chase, giving the Sox two more runs.

The Nationals got their run in the fourth inning. Evers singled and took second on Schulte's out. Zimmerman struck out, but Saier's safe drive sent the manager to third. A double steal was started. Weaver took Schalk's throw and tried to run down Saier between first and second, but they collided at the initial base and Weaver dropped the ball. In the meantime Evers stole home.

Scott tightened up after this and his teammates played in spectacular style.

In the ninth inning the Cubs again threatened. Saier got a single after one out. Good flied out and Bridwell and Archer followed with sharp singles which scored Saier.

Manager Evers rushed his artillery into the game in the final round but lightning fielding on the part of Berger and Weaver stopped the belated rally. FOR ARGUMENT. Albany, N. Y., Oct. 13 .- The ap peal in the case of Charles Becker, the former New York police lieutenant, and the four gunmen, "Whitey" Lewis, "Lefty Louis," "Gyp, the Blood," and "Dago Frank," who have been inmates of the death house house at Sing Sing for more than a year, came up for argument before the court of appeals today. The five were convicted and sentenced to death for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, who was shot down in front of the Hotel Metropole early on the morning of July 16, 1912. According to the evidence at the trial the murder was committed by the four gunmen at the instigation of Becker, whose alleged motive was to prevent the gambler from testifying before the grand jury in regards to police corruption.

Mayor Cured; Skin Cleared

Mayor Chapman of Ellis, Kansas, courteously says he will answer any letters written him relative to his truly marvelous care of skin trouble with the D. D. Prescription.

Mayor Chapman writes: "I think how I suffered last winter, how I could do no work. I was covered with terrible blotches, sometimes weeping water, sometimes worse, blotches sometimes 10 inches in diameter. FEARFUL ITCHING. It was only accidentally that I learned of the famous specific D. D. D. I write this in all gratitude for what D. D. D. has done for me."

Results from the use of D. D. D. are immediate. The first, soft, cool touch and the itch is gone!

Pimples, rashes, dandruff, disappear over night. Hard crusts and scales, raw scorching sores, salt rheum, tetter, no form of skin disease resists.

All druggists have this famous specific on hand.

If you will come to us we will sell you the first bottle on the guarantee that it will reach your case or your money refunded. You alone to judge. Ask also about D. D. Skin Soap, best for tender skin.

The sergeant footman withdrew, and presently Postmaster Hiley was announced. The king called him to his side and was beginning to read to him a telegram he wanted him to dispatch when he suddenly burst out:

"Hiley, you've been eating onions!" "No, your majesty," said the postmaster, instinctively recoiling.

"Yes, you have; it's disgraceful." The courier then entered the room and approached very warily, but his majesty's sense of smell was keen, and all Fehr's efforts to suppress the facts in the case were unavailing. The king looked up sharply, sat back in his chair and groaned:

wanted to meet the Sultan Mahmud dodges resorted to by British soldiers II., to whom no European lady had been presented, but Lord Ponsonby, the British ambassador, refused to the case of the professed deaf and trifle with precedent. Lady Londonderry then had a talk with Reschid Pasha, the Turkish minister for foreign affairs. The wily Reschid, desiring to do his best for her ladyship, made known to the sultan that a person had arrived at Constantinople with a wonderful collection of most valuable jewelry for sale and ventured tempting array of hospital comforts humbly to suggest that his imperial majesty might like to see the gems. The sultan was interested, and an interview was arranged, but Reschid merely told Lady Londonderry that she would be presented and that the sultan, having heard of the fame of her jewelry, had particularly requested that she would put it all on when she came. The gratified lady did so. On her arrival at the palace Reschid

Pasha conducted Lady Londonderry into the presence of the sultan. Her dress glittered with diamonds, pearls, turquoises and other precious stones. "Pekkei!" ("Good!") said the sultan as Lady Londonderry courtesied. "She has magnificent jewels." Reschid (to the lady)-His majesty

Long Drawn Out Elections.

No complaint with regard to undue limitation of polling time was possible world we must not stand shivering on in the old parliamentary days. The the brink and thinking of the cold and danger was that polling might be prolonged for a fortnight or a month. Drastic action to bring the poll to a close once provoked a riot in the Westminster division of London. At the general election that began on April Mr. Atkins was driving over his 25, 1741, the two Westminster ministerial candidates were on the fifth day hustings in great force, the high balliff (who favored the ministerialists) declared that he feared a riot and closed the poll. The baffled voters rioted and the military were called out. The high baitiff had afterward to apologize on his knees to the speaker and pay a heavy fine.

An Early Postal Experiment.

As long ago as the seventeenth cer tury the attempt was made to prepay letters by using stamps. In 1653 Paris tried a system that even provided pillar boxes for the letters, which were the letter or parcel. The experiment met the usual experience of the plo came to a sudden end.

Women of Middle Age

From 40 to 50 Woman's Critical Period.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, severe headaches, melancholia, dread of impending evil, palpitation of the heart, irregularity, constipation and dizziness are promptly treated by intelligent women who are approaching the period of life.

This is the most critical period of woman's life and she who neglects the care of her health at this time invites incurable disease and pain. Why not be guided by the experience of others and take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? It is an indisputable fact that this grand old remedy has helped thousands of women to pass through this trying period with comfort and safety. Thousands of genuine and honest testimonials support this fact.

From Mrs. HENRY HEAVILIN, Cadiz, Ohio.

Fort Worth, Texas. - "I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and derived great benefit from its use. It carried me safely through the Change of Life when I was in bad health. I had that all gone feeling most of the time, and headache constantly, I was very nervous and the hot flashes were very bad. I had tried other remedies and doctors, but did not improve until I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has now been sometime since I took the Compound and I have had no return of my old complaints. I always praise your remedies to weak women."—Mrs. Henry Heavilin, R. F. D. No. 5, Cadiz, Ohio.

From Mrs. EDWARD B. HILBERT, Fleetwood, Pa. Fleetwood, Pa.—"During the Change of Life I was hardly able to be around at all. I always had a headache and I was so dizzy and nervous that I had no rest at night. The flashes of heat were so bad sometimes that I did not know what to do.

"One day a friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it made me a strong, well woman. I am very thankful that I followed my friend's advice, and I shall recommend it as long as I live. Before I took the Compound I was always sickly and now I have not had medicine from a doctor for years. You may publish my letter."-Mrs. Edward B. Hilbert, Fleetwood, Pa.

TENT MEETING CLOSED SUNDAY

MASS SERVICES OF DAY WERE LARGELY ATTENDED.

Dr. Rees Presents Some Strong Figures Relative to the Saloon Question-Tent Not Large Enough to Hold People in Last Service.

Sunday marked the last day of the tent meetings which have been in progress for the past four weeks under the work of Evangelist and Mrs. M. S. Rees. The day was an unusually busy one, starting out with a sunrise service at 6:30 o'clock, at gelist Rees on the subject "Some It makes the jailer a busy man. It Revelations in Jacksonville," both gives the police force plenty to do. last meeting and hundreds of peo-ple stood about the tent, unable to digger. Are these the businesses you gain admittance. The subject was want to help.
"What is it to You?" An after meeting was held in addition to that at the tent, in Northminster church.

Perhaps no evangelist has been in the city in years who was more universally loved and respected than Evangelist Rees. His sermons have been powerfully convincing and the splendid work he has done will remain for years to come. Mrs. Rees proved herself a great leader of music and her work among the people has been of a most inspiring char-

At the mass meetings Evangelist Rees dwelt particularly upon the saloon question, presenting an array of facts and figures. In part he said: "I am surprised that in Jacksonville, the beautiful residence city noted for its churches and schools, the 'Athens of the West,' after six years which would probably be spent over the bars each year would be $297,-000. This would provide for all of the stems of expense stated above with the exception of the city improvements and would still leave $5.400 which might be so applied. "But you say the thirty saloons would yield a revenue of $30,000, and we need the money for the expenses of the city. Where did the when you did have saloons? Be hitherto unpublished: careful now! Isn't it true that the tions where saloons exist almost always eats up the revenue obtained from license? Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets-the substitute for calomel-are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His cretion committed to him, promptly efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets. These pleasant little tablets' do the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? CARLYLE AND THE SEA.

The Ebbing Tide Gave the Philosopher a Text For a Sermon.

In "John Foster and His Friendships" the author records an incident markedly characteristic of Thomas Carlyle. The author finds the great Scot at 8 o'clock one morning in 1876 money go that was taken in by the on the Chelsea embankment gazing at city government from the saloons the Thames. Here is the incident.

I should as soon have thought of extravagance of the city administra- assaulting as of addressing him. Happily I was spared anything of the kind, for the old man, reserved as he was to the point of moroseness-surliness, his enemies called it-hoarsely flung a query at me. The tide was "Some one says that it will help out, I may mention, the river being at broiness. Yes, it helps all kinds of its lowest. "Where goes it? Where

Don't forget that, sir-returning to the sea-the great illimitable sea!" With that he abruptly turned away and moved across the roadway toward Cheyne row with that Byron's Burned Memoirs. All lovers of Byron are aware that this erratic genius found time in his short, adventurous life to write his memoirs and that on his death these passed into the hands of his friend, Thomas Moore, who, exercising a disconsigned the manuscript to the flames. No doubt the writer of "Irish Melodies" had very good and highly proper reasons for taking this decisive step, and it is quite likely that the publication of the memoirs would not. for obvious reasons, have been possible for many years after the poet's death; yet as succeeding generations have been brought face to face with the peculiarly complex genius of Byron, with its lofty moods and its many dark places, they have felt need of the light which only the records written by a vanished

ATHENS AND THE SEASON.

Not Comfort, but the Date, Governs the Summer Outings.

The modern Athenians are not very fond of hard exercise, and except in the height of summer, when many of Stansfield Baldwin. III. phone them go to Kephisia and Phalerum and others to the islands or to the baths near Corinth for a "cure," they seem well content to remain within their city. They are governed, it seems by fashion, like those who dwell in less favored lands.

To Clean Valuable Glass.

One can never be careful enough in cleaning valuable objects d'art of all kinds, says the Pall Mall Gazette. Many exquisite pieces have been entirely spoiled through cleaning being accomplished unintelligently. Old glass counts among the most precious of possessions, and for its cleaning chemicals must never be used, because they remove that dull bluish gloss which is always a characteristic of antique specimens and is a point highly prized by connoisseurs. If cleaning really becomes necessary use powdered eggshells. These must be ground very fine, with no gritty pieces remaining to scratch the glass. Mix with tepid water into a thin paste and with this rub the glass, rinse with clear water afterward and dry with a soft leather. This is the only really reliable way of cleaning valuable glass and is a method carefully followed by collectors.

ANCIENT SKYSCRAPERS.

Roman Houses Were Tall and Flimsy,

the Streets Narrow Lanes. The tenement house is no new thing. So great was the number of such houses and so badly were they put up in ancient Rome that in 69 A. In comparison with the tenements of most modern cities, those of Rome were excessively high. Martial alludes to a poor man, a neighbor, who had to mount 200 steps to reach his garret. That garret must have been perched nearly 100 feet above the level of the

This, moreover, was irrespective of the breadth of the street. In Berlin the medium width of the streets is twentytwo meters, and in Paris the narrowest streets are nearly eight meters wide, while the streets of Rome extended only five or six meters, and on these narrow streets the tall houses were built. Light and air must have had some difficulty in penetrating those narrow, walled in passages.

THE SUNNYSIDE SCHOOL

Is Located In Joy Prairie Neighborhood and Twenty-three Pupils are

Monday morning a Journal reportr had the pleasure of a visit at the Sunnyside school, eight or nine miles northwest of the city on the far famed Joy prairie. The day was delightful and everything was propitious for the occasion. It was a time when all children would naturally be at school and the seats were all well filled. The school house is located on a commanding height of ground and is surrounded with a fine playground, one of the very best in the county. A lovely green sward with a fair amount of shade trees, it is indeed pleasant for the young seekers after knowledge.

The building itself hardly merits much praise as it needs paint and was, first started. Mrs. Story, John the city yesterday from Scott county the front step is dilapidated; likewise the fence looks like that around the home of an indigent widow who has been called away. The interior was rather more inviting. The room is too small but it answers a good purpose and the seats and desks were generally in good condition though one or two rticles of furniture needed mending. On the wall nung portraits of Washington, Lincoln, Garfield and Grant. The old fashioned box wood stove the teacher said would soon be supplanted by a modern heater. There seemed to be a good supply of maps and charts though the clock was, not exactly on a strike, but wasn't in business at the time of the visit.

The teacher said the directors were very kind and generous, supplying all she asked for in the conduct of the school. The pupils were very bright and made a pleasant audience for the visitor who told them something of foreign lands and then re-nuested them to ask him ques-tions which they did showing an intelligent appreciation of what was said. That feature of the visit was quite pleasant. Taken as a whole the visit was very agreeable and one which would be a pleasure to repeat.

The directors of the school are Edward Jov. William Perbix, and John Bobbitt. The teacher is Miss Ress's H. Hughes. The publis are: Charles Joy. Ressie Brown, Jona Wil-'ems. Mae Wilson, Mentie Willems, Arthur McDaniel. John Brown, Orville Sturnborg, Goldia Cnabtree, Elmer Crabtree. Stephen Reid. Grace Ragan, Brnest Ragan, Fred Malthe

The Reason for This Sale

I have decided to discontinue my retail store in Jacksonville and give all my time to the wholesale business in the future, and in order to sell all stock as quickly as possible, I am going to give my friends the best opportunity to get a piano they ever had or ever will have again. I've got to sell these Pianos at once and I am going to do it quickly, and the prices I am going to make will be the talk of the town for years to come.

CHAS. A. SHEPPARD 314 E. State St. Jacksonville, Ill

You Never Had a Better Opportunity

Not cheap, imitation finished Pianos, made in unknown factories and sold under a worthless guarantee, but the highest grade made in the largest and best known factory in the world and sold under a guarantee backed by millions of dollars. Money and brains can't make better. Procastination is the thief of time. Tomorrow is the day that never comes. Buy your Piano from me NOW.

MODERN DUTCH FURNITURE

Modern Dutch Furniture

Limbert's Modern Dutch Arts and Crafts Furniture is built for the requirements of modern use. Comfort, utility and durability together with structural perfection and beauty of design are the prime motives. In its solidity and permanence its reflects Dutch sturdiness and thoroughness, in the beauty of its patterns and richness and color harmony of its leathers and finishes, it preserves the mastery of Dutch Art.

Construction

Every piece of Limbert furniture is made from solid white oak thoroughly dried, aged and seasoned. Carefully made mortise and pinned tenon joints, solid dowel construction, keyed braces and other so und devices lock its parts together, No structural imitations or subterfuges are tolerated. The front posts are tennoned through the arms and pinned, the posts projecting through the arms. Stretchers and back slats are joined in the same way, making all joints rigid All runners on Limbert rockers are made from straight pieces of wood bent to the proper curve in powerful steam presses. Rockers thus bent will not break because they have no short cross grain as is found in rockers that are band Hand work is vital in this furniture, for fram hand work comes its individuality and charm. Yet we do not wish to convey the idea that it is made entirely by hand. Machinery is used only where it can be employed to improve the product.

Color and Finish Limbert's Modern Dutch Arts and Crafts Furniture can be procured in any color or finish that can be produced on white oak. Very characteristic are the popular brown tones of the Genuine Fumed finish obtained by subjecting the wood to the action of ammonia fumes. This finish has a rich, nut brown or autumn-leaf color similar to that of wood colored by age. It possesses a soft translucent sheen which is inimitable and harmonizes with almost any color scheme.

Spanish Morocco Leather The leather used on Limbert's Arts and Crafts is made from imported goat skins, it is soft and pliable as well as firm and strong. The natural grain surface lends itself to beautiful blendings of colors which are fast and it will withstand anything but misuse and is guaranteed for years of service.

Sanitary Spring Seat Cushion

Highly tempered springs are employed in the cushions of chairs, rockers and settees. For the seats these springs are double deck. The upper springs respond readily to a lightweight person and the lower springs are strong enough to support a person of the heaviest weight. These seat cushions contain three times as many springs as are usually found in the same size seats. These cushions are loose, light, clean and sanitary and as easily removed as a feather pillow.

Identification

Many makers have tried to imitate Limbert's Holland-Dutch Arts and Crafts Furniture, yet they have never succeeded in imparting to their product the character and artistic merit of furniture that has the Limbert trademark branded into the wood. This branded trade mark is a means of identification and a guarantee of excellence.
